

BY THE
LORD LIEVTENANT GENERALL AND
GENERALL GOVERNOR
OF THE KINGDOME OF IRELAND.

ORMONDE.

WHEREAS Articles of Peace, are made, concluded, accorded, & agreed upon, by & betweene Vs, JAMES Lord Marques of Ormonde, Lord Lieutennant Generall, & Generall Governor of his Majesties Kingdome of Ireland, by vertue of the authority whereof Wee are entrusted, for and on the behalfe of his Most Excellent Majestie of the one part, and the Generall ASSEMBLY of the Roman Catholickes of the said Kingdome, for and on the behalfe of his Majesties Roman Catholicke Subjects of the same, on the other parte; A true Copie of which Articles of Peace is heerevnto annexed. Wee the Lord Lieutenant doe by this Proclamation, in his Majesties name, publish the same, and doe in his Majesties name strictly charge and commaund all his Majesties Subjects, and all others Inhabiting or residing within his Majesties said Kingdome of Ireland to take notice thereof, and to render due obedience to the same all the Partes thereof.

And as his Majestie hath beene induced to this Peace, out of a deepe sence of the miseryes and calamities brought upon this his kingdome, and people, and out of a hope conceived by his Majestie, that it may prevent the further effusion of his Subiects Blood, redeeme them out of all the miseris, and calamities under which they now suffer, restore them to all quietnes and happines, under his Majesties most gracious Gouvernement, deliver the Kingdome in generall, from those slaughters, depredations, rapines, and spoyles which alwaies accompany a Warr, encourage the Subjects & others with comfort to betake themselves to trade, traffique, Commerce, manufacture, and all other things, which vninterrupted, may increase the Wealth and strength of the Kingdom, beget in all his Majesties Subiects of this Kingdome, a perfect vnity amongst themselves, after the too long continued division amongst them; So his Maiestie assures himselfe that all his subiects of this His Kingdome (duely considering the great and inestimable Benifits which they may find in this Peace) will with all duty, render due obedience therevnto. And Wee, in his Maiesties name doe hereby declare, that all persons so rendering due obedience to the said Peace, shall bee protected, cheerefully countenanced, and supported by his Maiestie, and his Royall Authority, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Articles of Peace.
